The Reimagined Workplace: United States

Hosted by Employment Law Alliance

Michael Best is proud participate with ELA to present a complimentary webinar segment on employment law topics and global challenges affecting businesses of all sizes. Their Reimagined Workplace series features legal experts from around the globe in candid, direct conversations addressing employers most important questions. The format is driven by interactive discussions and Q&A. Participants can submit questions in advance or during the live program.

The North America series will focus on the “Future of Work” and how the pandemic has permanently and immediately impacted the way we work. The U.S. webinar will explore the impact of modified and remote workplaces on corporate culture; the role of employers in swiftly adapting to crisis and leading through social and continuous change; and the legal framework of this rapid evolution.
