Michael Best Strategies Adds PR Executive Evan Zeppos to Team

Madison, WI - Michael Best Strategies today announced that Evan Zeppos has joined the firm as a Senior Public Affairs Counselor to help expand and enhance the public affairs and public relations services it provides to a broad range of local, regional and national clients.

"Michael Best Strategies already has a highly-qualified team of professionals who work closely with businesses and organizations on various government relations and public affairs assignments, and adding someone with Evan's considerable track record and skill set takes our organization to another level," said Ted Kanavas, Chairman of Michael Best Strategies. "Evan has significant experience working with C-suite level executives on major issues, and a strong track record of successful public affairs projects on challenging assignments during his career, and we are thrilled to have him join our already strong team."

Zeppos was the founder and owner of Zeppos & Associates, a Milwaukee based public relations and government affairs firm, before selling it to Laughlin Constable in 2012. For the last five years, Zeppos has served as Executive Vice President of Public Relations at Laughlin Constable and headed its public relations department. Prior to working in the private sector, Zeppos also worked for two Wisconsin Governors and several Members of Congress on Capitol Hill. He is a UW-Madison journalism graduate and a Milwaukee native who currently resides in Brookfield.

"The opportunity to join Michael Best Strategies and return my focus to strategic public relations, crisis communications and issue management is a great opportunity," Zeppos said, "and I look forward to an exciting future as we expand the service offerings."

"Evan's knowledge base on issue management and strategic communications in Wisconsin and other parts of the country is well established, and his addition to our team increases our ability to be a value-added resource to our clients," said
