2018 Transactional Regional LawMeet

LawMeets

Partner Brad Jacobsen served as a judge at the 2018 Transactional Regional LawMeet on February 23, 2018. The Transactional LawMeet is the premier “moot court” experience for students interested in a transactional practice. It is a part of the LawMeet series of live, interactive, educational competitions designed to give law students a hands-on experience in developing and honing transactional lawyering skills.
