Starting At a Startup

With the expansion of our startup community comes new career opportunities at these growing companies. Join Newance to learn more about startup life from the employee side of things.

We'll answer questions like:

- What advice do startup employees have to share about working at a startup?
- What are some myths about working at a startup and what tends to be true?
- What terms will you see in your contract and what do they mean (for example vesting)?
- What are fundraising rounds and what do raises or sales mean for employees?

Presented by Amanda Daering, CEO at Newance, Dan Gawronski, Attorney at Michael Best, and Maggie Fernandes, WePivot and MacGreggor Partners, in promotional partnership with Gener8tor.
