

January 13, 2020

Can the Construction Process Really Drive, or Hinder, a Successful Real Estate Deal?

As construction costs rise, delays occur, and skilled trades are spread thin – there is risk that could mean the difference between a successful deal and a bust. Join CARW to learn how construction costs and schedules are becoming an important factor in real estate deals, as well as best practices to minimize these adverse impacts. The panel of brokers, contractors, architects, owners representative, and construction attorneys will give you insights and tools to better serve your real estate clients and get deals done.

Roy Wagner, Partner and Leader of Construction Law Group with Michael Best and Friedrich LLP, will facilitate the discussion.

Panelists include:

- Joe Jursenas, Briohn Building Corporation
- Glenn Roby, Kahler Slater
- Steven Chamberlin, Chamberlin Group
- Mitchell Starczynski, Newmark Knight Frank

Related People

Roy Wagner

Partner

rewagner@michaelbest.com

T 414.270.2707

Events Details

Date:

Monday, January 13, 2020

Time (Central):

11:45 a.m. - 1:45 p.m.

Location:

CARW

1st Floor Conference Room

250 E. Wisconsin Ave.

Milwaukee, WI 53202

Related Practices

Construction Law

Real Estate

