

July 09, 2020

Best Practices for Protecting Against Third Party Liability

PLAC

From visitors, vendors, clients and customers in the workplace to the recipients of products, goods and services in the field, there are potentially huge numbers of claimants that any company's business operations could impact. Panelist Paul Benson discussed these claims and strategies for defending against them when they arise.

Related People

Paul Benson

Partner

pebenson@michaelbest.com

T 414.225.2757

Related Practices

Litigation