

Allison E. Keller *

Paralegal

\ Not admitted to practice law*

Overview

Allison has nearly 20 years of experience as a paralegal. She assists with all aspects of litigation, from inception of a case to resolution, including trial.

As a litigation paralegal, Allison has extensive case management experience in commercial litigation matters. She also has experience with intellectual property and employment litigation matters, such as trademark infringement suits and discrimination claims. Allison regularly reviews documents for discovery purposes, conducts research, and compiles materials for depositions, motions, hearings and trials.

As a risk manager, Allison works closely with the firm's General Counsel, as well as with brokers and insurers on professional liability, management liability, and employment practices liability coverage.

Experience

Allison has provided assistance in numerous successful trials, including:

- Jury trial victories for a large Illinois municipality in federal cases alleging employment discrimination
- A federal bench trial victory for a financial institution client in a trademark infringement case

Education

- Washington University, Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), 1993
