Cost-Effective Guidance During the Crisis—and Beyond

---

Michael Best is working on many fronts to help our clients cope with disruptions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. For clients whose in-house legal departments are in transition, or who lack in-house legal support, this may be an especially challenging time.

Our Best General Counsel (Best GC) service is here to help. With Best GC, you will have your own dedicated, experienced attorney who takes the time to understand your business; build relationships with key internal stakeholders; and attend shareholder, board, and senior management meetings, as desired. They also have the support of a full-service firm to provide quick answers to day-to-day legal matters.

Whether you're seeking comprehensive outside counsel or interim assistance in specific areas, Michael Best will work with you to develop a customized menu of services and a cost-effective approach. To provide cost certainty in uncertain times, we offer our Best GC service for fixed fees for services or at a monthly fixed fee, depending on scope and needs.

We designed Best GC for maximum flexibility, so it can be custom-tailored to each client's specific legal needs, preferences, and internal resources. That flexible design also enables us to quickly adapt Best GC to the unprecedented circumstances confronting clients today. We can provide strategic guidance and hands-on assistance in a wide variety of legal matters across all practice areas, including:
